Program Description

Individual, Group & Family Counseling – gender specific and age specific. Community-based and culturally responsive to African American families. ”: Since 1989, Sister Circle groups provide a safe place for survivors of physical, emotional and sexual abuse to exchange ideas and experiences by helping to eliminate fears and foster feelings of friendship, respect, sisterhood and trust between women of the same group ancestry. Sister Circle groups are active for women of color and those who wish to join them. Members receive domestic abuse and sexual assault information and education, safety planning, intimate partner and sex related issues education; HIV/AIDS and other STD education, systems advocacy and case management services tailored to the individual and/or family. Services are via peer-support and certified and licensed staff.
